Milar

Grey and brown hues come together to form the basis of the new Milar color palette, resulting in a surface inspired by oxidised and faded urban materials. Its dark base contrasts with lighter detail, making this a versatile and appealing design. Given its aesthetic, Milar fits seamlessly into the Industrial Collection by Dekton, bringing the total number of options in this on-trend series to nine.

BROMO - NATURAL COLLECTION

Bromo

Bromo is a deep blue/black shade, inspired by homogeneous metamorphic rocks such as slate. Subtle, faded veining, a tactile finish and a natural aesthetic define this new color, which would suit both modern and traditional spaces. Bromo joins the Natural Collection by Dekton, a series in which Cosentino recreates the best of nature.

What is Dekton®?

Dekton® is a sophisticated mixture of more than 20 minerals extracted from nature. Its production process is the result of years of learning and inspiration to make glass, latest-generation porcelain tiles and quartz surfaces.

Dekton® uses in its manufacturing the exclusive TSP technology, able to sinter mineral particles making them bond with each other, change and compact their internal structure. A unique and innovative technological process that represents an accelerated version of the metamorphic changes that natural stone undergoes when exposed for millennia to high pressure and high temperature.

Dekton® emulates in a few hours what takes nature thousands of years, through an exclusive technological process.

The electron microscopy allows the reduced porosity of the material, due to the sintering process and exclusive ultra-compaction of Dekton®. It's virtual zero porosity and the non-existence of the microflaws that cause tension and weaknesses set Dekton apart from other materials.
